"PENNY GOSSIP."

The Salt Lake High school basketball team met defeat at the hands of the university preps at the U gymnasium yesterday afternoon. The score was 40 to Reports have it that "Fighting Dick" Hyland, the pleasant little boxer from the coast, has quit Sammy McClintic and has gone east for a match. There are many fight fans who will congratulate Hyland in taking this step because Sammy has acted in a rather peculiar manner with reference to getting matches for Hyland. The latter says he is tired of fighting second raters. Another report has it that Dick has taken on Billy Gibson as manager and if this is true Hyland has but jumped from the frying pan into the fire. Gibson has a most unsavory reputation in the world of sport where ever he has taken part in athletics. Crooked foot races and frame up wresting and boxing bouts are not unknown to Gibson. Hyland will certainly make a mistake if he allows Gibson to represent him.

At Trinidad, Colo., a few days ago, the famous (?) Mexican Pete won and lost a decision. He won when he beat his wife unmercifully. He lost when he appeared in court and the judge rendered a decision which cost Pete $25. There must have been something decidedly wrong about the affair. Think of a 215 pound Mexican beating a woman. Pete has been reported dead several times, in a literal sense, but of course everybody knows he is a dead one when it comes to fighting-except when he fights a woman. Even then he would probably lose if the woman discovered the large streak of yellow Pete carries around with him.

Cornell athletics have received another setback with the announcement that Robert McCallie, last year's halfback and an allround athlete and a promising candidate for the varistly basehall team, will quit the university to return to his home at Chattanooga.
